

February 2016

Changes in Avianca's Excess Baggage Charges between North America and Central America (both ways)

We want to inform you that Avianca's Excess Baggage Charges will be modified for flights in Economy Class between North America and Central America as follows:

Region	Product	AV's current prices	Changes*	Effective date
NAMCAM (both ways)* except NAMSAL	Excess Baggage	$30 USD on 2nd piece weighing less than or equal to 23 kg (50 lb)	$40 USD on 2nd piece weighing less than or equal to 23 kg (50 lb)	For tickets bought and/ or issued from February 1st 2016
		$35 CAD on 2nd piece weighing less than or equal to 23 kg (50 lb) (From CAN to CAM)	$45 CAD on 2nd piece weighing less than or equal to 23 kg (50 lb) (From CAN to CAM)

*Second piece will remain as "Must Go". First and second piece up to 70lb/32kg also remain "Must Go". The combined height, length, and width of your baggage may not exceed 62 linear inches (158 cm). If your baggage exceeds the allowed weight and/or dimensions, you will have to pay an additional charge. Taxes apply. For more information, visit Avianca.com

For passengers traveling in Economy Class between the following destinations in North America: Mexico City, Cancun, Miami, Fort Lauderdale, Orlando, New York, Newark, Chicago, Houston, Washington D.C., Dallas, San Francisco, Los Angeles and Toronto and the following destinations in Central America: Guatemala, Flores, Belize, San Pedro Sula, Tegucigalpa, Roatan, La Ceiba, Managua, San Jose, Liberia and Panama (both ways). New changes does not apply for flights between North America and San Salvador, charge remain in $30 USD ($35 CAD). Will not be modified: Baggage policy for LifeMiles Elite members, Star Alliance Gold members, Infants, and passengers traveling in Business Class. Carry-on baggage policies. Additional charges for Extra bags (For the third piece onwards).